RICHMOND CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 26, 1915. NUMBER 220

SUGGEST PLAN FOR BENEFIT OF CITY

Upon the suggestion of Councilman Lane, the city council last night ordered city clerk A. C. Faris to get into communication with officials of the Exposition, relative to securing ferns and trees from the exposition at its close. Faris, members of the city council and the Tree Planting Commission will confer with officials of the exposition. The suggestion is an excellent one. It is more than probable that the exposition people will have no further use for the ferns and trees which line the various thoroughfares at the Exposition grounds when the Exposition closes. Richmond has contributed mush towards the success of the Exposition and it is probable that their request will be granted. This would eliminate the expense of purchasing trees and ferns for the city.

In making his suggestion Lane said: "With the completion of the Exposition San Francisco will have no further use for thousands of these trees and ferns. Therefore I would suggest that we make application for them. Otherwise they will go to waste and they can be put to good use in Richmond."

ARCTIC LIFE MAY BE THAT OF CITY

"Darling We Are Growing Cold." So sang members of the City council last night. The sweet notes were echoed by City Engineer Chapman; city auditor McVittie; city Tax Collector Marshall; city Treasures Ira Vaugha City Clerk A. C. Faris City Police Judge Lindsey and City Health Commissioner Blake.

The winter is drawing nigh. Its chill is penetrating the city hall. And also the men and women who work there. But there is no heating system. There is no chimney. The hotwater bottle has been suggested. But how can the water be heated?

Scott & Co. came forth with a suggestion last night. They declared that for $725 they would put a heating system in the building. Winter is drawing nigh. The time to reach a decision is short. The city fathers are hovering between coal stoves in each department or a heating system.

They will decide this week. In the meantime, city employees are thinking seriously of the hot water bottle.

BEYER MOVES HIS BUSINESS

H. J. Beyer, the well known local agent for the Call-Post has moved his place of business from 960 Macdonald avenue to 1008 Macdonald avenue. Beyer will carry a complete line of stationary goods, candies and cigars and tobacco. In moving to his new location, Beyer has added to his stock and will be pleased to receive orders from any sections of the city. "Quality the best; prices reasonable," is Beyer's motto.

WANT UNIFORM PHONE RATE IN RICHMOND

City Attorney D. J. Hall was last night instructed by the City Council to draw up a resolution to be presented the Railroad Commission asking that body to fix a uniform telephone rate in Richmond.

CITY OFFICIALS HEAR REPORT ON FRANCHISES

City Attorney D. J. Hall and City Clerk A. C. Faris last night reported that they had visited Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley Friday to investigate the conditions undr which telephone franchises had been let in those cities. They reported that Alameda had granted a forty one year franchise, for which the city received 35 free telephones and 2 per cent of the earnings; Oakland, 50 year franchise, 220 free phones and 2 per cent; Berkeley, 25 year franchise, 75 free phones and 2 per cent.

The company has offered Richmond 23 free phones and 2 per cent after five years for a forty one year franchise. The council will probably reach a decision this week.

WINEHAVEN COUPLE TO WED IN NEAR FUTURE

The engagement of Miss Naida Kohr and Joseph Perasso was announced yesterday. Miss Kohr is the daughter of Robert Kohr, the popular carpenter at the California Wine association at Winehaven. She is prominent in local social activities. Perasso is employed at the association and is well known and popular.

The date of the marriage has not been set but it will probably be early next year.

SEA OF MATRIMONY EVEN TOO ROUGH FOR MR. FISH

Storms are occuring with a monotonous regularity on the matrimonial sea. Preva M. Fish yesterday secured a final decree of divorce from Edwin Fish. The plaintiff was represented by attorney C. A. Odell. Through attorney T. Mervin Carlson, Harry Goldwater, a local pawn broker, has filed suit against his wife, Marion on the grounds of desertion. Goldwater claims that his wife left him in August of 1914.

GIRL TRAVELS ACROSS CONTINENT TO MARRY

Distance is a minor consideration when Dan Cupid goes on the trail. Therefore a mere matter of two thousand miles, a distance of two thirds across the continent, did not interfere in the slightest with the plans of Miss Jennie Iola Smith, a charming young woman of Stubenville, Ohio and Harrison Rogers of this city. Miss Smith accompanied by her mother arrived in Richmond yesterday.

Last night, the Rev. Frank Linder pastor of the Wesley Methodist church pronounced the words which united Miss Smith and Rogers in marriage. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver Young of this city. The ceremony was witnessed by several relatives of the couple.

They will make their home at 2333 Castro avenue, where the groom has erected a pretty home. Rogers is employed by the Western States Porcelain company.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. U. S. Abbott, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Abbott, Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Blake, Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Carpenter, Dr. and Mrs. I. B. March, Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Campbell, Dr. H. N. Barney, Dr. W. S. Scroggs, Dr. Belgium all of Richmond, Dr. C. R. Leach and wife of Walnut Creek, Dr. O'Malley and wife of Crockett, Dr. E. B. Fitzpatrick and Miss Murray of Martinez, and Mrs. Clara Yonce of Logan, Ohio, and Dr. Miles Jones of San Francisco. Dr. Jones is editor of the State Medical Journal.

BANK CASHIER ARRESED IS PROMINENT IN COUNTY

Following a conference late yesterday afternoon in the office of District Attorney Thomas D. Johnston, a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of John D. Martini, assistant cashier of the San Ramon valley bank at Danville. Veale has left by auto to take De Martini into custody. DeMartini, who comes of one of the wealthiest and most prominent families in this section, anticipating this action, has retained Attorney W. S. Tinning and secured bond money. At the conference with Johnston were Sheriff Veale, President Boone and Cashier Joseph L. Silveria of the bank. Between closing time on Saturday the 16th inst and opening time on the following Monday morning $5400 disappeared from the safe. The sheriff's office says it's an "inside job."

VOTE WILL BE SMALL TODAY IS BELIEVED

Probably less interest is being taken in today's state election, in which eleven proposed constitutional amendments will appear on the ballot than any other election held in many years. Despite the fact that the ballot contains many matters of vital interest, the people are showing no inclination to go to the polls and it is probable that less than half will be cast in Richmond. Many predicted that not more than 2,500 votes would be cast.

Despite this lack of interest, those who are interested in the election and devoting much time to telling of the bad and good in the various propositions.

At the recent session of the California State Federation of Labor the following propositions were approved: No. 1, providing for non-partisanship in state elections; and No. 9 changing methos of taxation. The Federation is opposed to No. 3, lengthening the terms of Superior judges and No. 7, abolishing majority rule in questions of bonded indebtedness.

HONORED ON SIXTY-FIRST BIRTHDAY

Mrs. J. Tickel was sixty-six years old yesterday.

In her honor a number of friends gave her a surprise party at her home, 2117 Barrett avenue yesterday afternoon. Many gifts were received by Mrs. Tickel. Games were enjoyed, following which refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. Mary Mattern, Mrs. E. Filloon, Mrs. Katie Hopkins, Mrs. J. E. Wright, Mrs. Mary Hoffee, Mrs. Minnie Robbins, Mrs. Clara Washburn, Mrs. C. E. Thomas, Mrs. H. Galvin, Mrs. A. Bairos, Mrs. Elizabeth Swanson, Mrs. J. Tickel, Miss Abbie Wright, Miss Florence Tavalora, and Miss Edith Adams.

LEAGUE WILL BE STARTED TONIGHT

At a meeting tonight, steps for theorganization of a midwinter baseball league will be taken. Representatives of the Cubs of the Cheek stable; Winehaven, Point Athletes and Woodmen of America will gather and perfect plans for the new league.

These four clubs are venly matched and some pretty fast baseball sheould be dished up. Hughie McCauley, famous motion picture magnate has intimated that he will invest heavily in the proposed league.

BABY DAUGHTER BORN TO WIFE OF SANTA FE MAN

RESIGNS AS ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Pierce yesterday tendered his resignation to Dist. Atty. Johnston, to take effect November 1st. The announcement caused considerable surprise. Pierce has been with the district attorney's office since the first of the year, being appointed when Johnston first took over the reigns of the office. The prominent local attorney has built up a large private business, and because of this it was necessary for him to drop from the district attorney's force.

Pierce has attended to the local end of the county in an able manner. Commenting on the resignation the district attorney said "I am very sorry to lose the services of Mr. Pierce as he has been a very able and efficient assistant to this department."

The Daily News regrets that Mr. Pierce has made this decision. Mr. Pierce has been a stalwart champion of labor, and is one of the most popular attorneys in the county. He possesses that unusual gift of the power to read human nature and in his cases for the county in the courts he has always shown himself fair and impartial.

By Pierce's action the district attorney's office is losing the most popular man in that office.

A wagon driven by Paul Cramer collided with one driven by Lee Stout. Cramer driving a team belonging to Otto Ludewig, rounded the corner at Sixth street into Macdonald avenue.

The horse crashed into the wagon of the Western States Gas & Electric company, driven by Stout. The shafts of the Ludewig wagons were broken. The horse was not injured. Neither driver was injured.

THE BUSINESS SITUATION REVIEWED

Were it not for the presumably artificial commercial conditions that prevail throughout the countries engaged in war much encouragement could be derived from the apparent movement in business throughout the world.

A temporary stimulus is given to trade by the prodigious output of munitions in the belligerent countries, but no one is deceived by this. Many other lines are stagnant because of the war. At the same time it is indeeded remarkable that general business in the war zone has retained the pace it has kept. There is a broadening of activity throughout the United States, where fundamental conditions are sound and prospects are propitious for a further growth.

Canada is enjoying substantial business improvement. A large wheat harvest and good prices for the cereal afford much encouragement to commerce. The chief industrial activity for some time past has been among concerns filling war orders. There is also a big business in munitions making in England. The iron, steel, woolen, motor and leather trades are remarkably active, and foreign commerce is heavy. The industries in France that are most active are those supplying governmental needs. In Russia business is generally stagnant, principally because of the long period in which there has been no outlet for the enormous crops that have been harvested. Italy's position is still most unfavorable, from a commercial standpoint. The cessation of tourist travel has had a serious effect upon all lines of trade, and the country, in addition, is piling up a big war debt. Little reliable news concerning the business and financial affairs of Germany and Austria-Hungary is available, but enough is known to indicate a precarious situation of those countries.

The South American countries are doing much better. There has been a good recovery from the depression in Argentina, and other countries of the southern continent are enjoying more or less improvement of a permanent character.

One of the striking features of the business situation is the tremendous growth of the automobile industry wherever automobiles are made. This is in large part due to the demands of war, automobile trucks having an urgent call for war purposes. There is however, an increasing demand for cars for pleasure cars throughout the United States. It is said that there has been actually a dearth of cars and that manufacturers are away behind in their orders. It looks as if profits for 1916 would even exceed those of 1915, which were of unprecedented volume. Earnings of some of the companies are said to be almost fabulous. The damand for all kinds of iron and steel products has increased enormously of late. The rapid manner in which this line of trade has improved may be seen from the fact that last month's iron production in the United States was 2, 852,561 tons, the largest on record.

SAY BILL HOW ABOUT A FLAGPOLE: LET'S STICK TITLE UP ON THE PARK

Hurrah, hurray, likewise whoops and hoopla.

Let joy be confined. What care we who is the world's champion tiddle de winks player? Why should we worry if the prilce of spuds advances? Let 'em fight it out in Europe.

Richmond is a happy guy today and why shouldn't he be? Aren't we the champions of semi-pro baseball of the state? The answer is sweet. The melodious tune resounds throughout the country. It says Yey, Richmond is the semi-pro baseball champion of California. Oh joy! Oh bliss! Oh rapture!

We knew they could do it and they did. The Richmond Elks, are now state champions. At Sebastopol Sunday afternoon, the local club defeated the Sebastopol aggregation in the fifth of a five game series, making it three out of five. The score was 7 to 4. But it doesn't half tell the tale.

The contest was a thriller from start to finish. The members of the local club promised to do their best. They did. They went to the land of apples confident and their confidence was rewarded. It was a game of games.

S ebastopol, made a desperate attempt to bring victory home in the ninth inning. Two runs were scored but Burns tightened up and Benham succumbed for the last out.

Were there any heroes?

There were.

Were there any features

There were.

Was there any enthusiasm?

There was.

Was there any joy?

There was.

Was there any sorrow?

There was.

Let us answer question No. 1.

First let us ask the handsome linotype operator to place the cognomens of the heroes in large blackface type. Here they are: Charlie Burns, Eddie Benn, Rod Murphy, Kenneth Ingraham, Cliff Cleek, William Cunningham, Jack Conger, Christiansen, Babe Danzig, Bill Luce and Butch Woodbury.

Those are the heroes.

Now about those features. Burns pitched a wonderful game. But six hits were garnered from his delivery. Eddie Benn walloped out a homer and a single. Rod Murphy, that handsome Irisher, laruped, out three hits, stole two bases, one being home and scored three runs. Cleek grabbed a brace of hits and so did Cutey Cunningham.

And those who have not been mentioned put up a wonderful game of baseball.

The enthusiasm! That is left to the imagination.

The joy! That was all Richmond's.

The sorrow! Joe Thomas weeped much weeps as did all citizens of Sebastopol.

One of the surprises of the day was the fact that Petaluma fans backed the Richmond club as did San Rafael and Santa Rosa. In fact, Sebastopol was probably never cleaned up so classy since the big wind. Money is as scarce in the up country burg as bar flys in a dry town.

Ten machines carrying local fans made the trip while about 50 went oven the more plebian route of the train Frank Lucas piloted one of the machines carrying the members of the team. On the return trip, Frank opened up with a number of songs of victory which added to the interest of the expedition.

Richmond is now undisputed the champion of the bay region, but we can claim the state title, as there is nothing on the horizon that compares as a probable conquerer of the local team. Oroville will be our guest on November 7th, and if the locals get by this club, they will just naturally have a strangle hold on the title.

Of course, Denny J. Healey will now come forth with a couple of reams of remarks, but Petaluma is out of the running for the bunting.

The local club is certainly entitled to a whole lot of consideration. The team has played great ball all season. When Bill Luce suggested that the boys set out on the trip earlier than usual, he certainly made a wise remark. The jinx is fractured. It is just naturally ruined.

While old kid gloom is holding his headquarters in Sebastopol, old man joy and his associates have made their headquarters in Richmond. Too much credit cannot be given the club. They accomplished the almost impossible. Few, even the most optimistic, expected the boys to get away with Sunday's game.

But class will always tell. Battling on a foreign strand, against a club composed of the best there is in baseball, the local nine put up a really wonderful game. There were individual stars. Personally we are glad that Babe Danzig did not grab off any hits. Not that we have anything against Babe, but we wanted to see Richmond win with a Richmond team. And they did.

The club has proven itself worthy of the name of Richmond. They are all entitled to the iron cross.

But as we haven't any, we'll just call it square by voicing the centiments of the entire city of Richmond.

"BOYS WE LOVE YOU. WHILE DOUGH IS SCARCE AND WE CANNOT SLIP OUT ANY FILTHY LUCRE, REMEMBER THAT YOUR WORK IS APPRECIATED A LOT MORE THAN THE POOR BOOB WHO WRITES THIS STUFF CAN EVER PUT INTO PRINT."

WINEHAVEN IS WINNER IN 10 SPASMS

Ten innings of exciting baseball were dished up by the Winehaven and Woodmen of America teams Sunday afternoon at the First St. park. In the tenth, Winehaven chased over a brace of tallies and cinched the game. Miderwath opened for the wine makers and pitched the first four spasms, allowing 4 runs and five hits. Pinkerton held the lodgemen scoreless and runless the remaining five. Moss handled short for Winehaven and Flynn caught a nice game. The score:
